

DID YOU KNOW?

According to the Energy Information Administration the average household:

- Spends $400-600/yr. on water heating (entire U.S. average);
- Use 64 gallons of water/day; also,
- Water heating is the second largest expense in your home utility bill;
- To ensure you have enough hot water, have your contractor determine your household peak-hour demand to select the right size hot water heater;
- Be sure to check for possible tax credits for energy efficient water heaters.

LOCAL GAS FOR LOCAL PEOPLE

Aging Hot Water Heater?

How old is your hot water heater? Some signs it may need to be replaced include: hot water doesn't seem to last as long as it used to, leaks or puddles on the floor near the tank, turning on the hot water, but only getting cold water, and unusual noises from the unit. (www.howcast.com)

How Much Can You Save?

Everyone's circumstances are different. Your savings are dependent on your fuel cost, your annual household usage, and the EF of your equipment.

Based on local energy costs: Natural Gas $1.46 ccf; Propane $1.84 gal; No.2 Fuel Oil $2.25 gal; Electric $0.135859 kwh.

Efficiency Factor or Energy Factor (EF) used for Hot Water Heater costs: Electric 0.96, Propane and Natural Gas 0.675, Oil 0.68.
